

FARAM

Asia

A refined chair both in design and technological solutions that permit a total adaptability to adjust the chair to the different users' body as specified from up to date ergonomic requests. Simple to use with a very great comfort, perfect in the different body posture and very elegant. High productivity and relaxed life from today in your office.

Technogel™ is a special polyurethane gel developed for the medical field with advanced thermodynamics that out perform any other kind of upholstery system. The gel has an elastic memory that adapts itself to the user's body configuration reducing the lumbar pressure by up to 60% over traditional upholstered seats. Thanks to its thermodynamic is lowered by 2 to 3 degrees, yielding enormous benefits during long periods of sitting.

The back is adjustable back height, with synchronized seat and back mechanism with 5 different positions possible. Chair back anti-shock system and personalized movement adjustment based on body weight guarantee the top of the comfort. Visitors chair, with polypropylene body, has 2 adjustable castors and 2 feet, cold-pressed polyurethane padding and flexible arms.

Faram can introduce modifications for the improvement of the product without prior notice. Finishes to be referred to Faram dedicated information.